

Bones That Float Book Discussion Kit

We have compiled a few suggestions to make your book discussion a success. Please have a speaker phone on hand when Kari calls you.

1) To make your event fun and meaningful we have included:

- DVD of the Grady Grossman School in Cambodia
- Artwork from students at the Grady Grossman School
- Recipes for Cambodian appetizers
- 5 Discussion Questions (optional)
- Host gift: one Cambodian silk scarf

2) To qualify for the drawing for a Free Trip to Cambodia, you need at least 10 people in your group. Based on our experience, we have a few tips to ensure your event is well attended.

- We suggest using the free online invitation service at www.Evite.com.
- Invite at least twice as many as you want to attend, one month in advance.
- Remind all your guests of the event 1 week prior.
- Remind again 1 day prior.

3) Purchase books:

- To receive free shipping from www.BonesThatFloat.com
- Host places one order online for the whole group and books are shipped directly to the host using a special coupon code provided once an event is scheduled OR
- Attendees place orders individually online using a special coupon code by a specific date and all books will be shipped together to the host.

- Purchase on Amazon.com.
- Special order at your local bookstore.

25% of all proceeds benefit the Friends of the Grady Grossman School.
When you purchase books on BonesThatFloat.com, more dollars go directly to support education in Cambodia.

4) Suggested Program

- Gather and Socialize - (30 minutes)
- Discuss book - (5 optional questions provided) - (30 minutes)
- Watch DVD of the school / Show children's artwork - (15 minutes)
- Author's Call - (30 minutes)

Kari will field questions, take attendance to register host for the drawing, and gather email addresses for those interested in staying informed about the Grady Grossman School.
